To Beneficiaries of the Lear Family Trust:

For those beneficiaries who have not received the document directly from Mr. Reese, I now enclose the Response to Supplement No. 6 of the Shanda Lear-Baylor Objection to Fourteenth Intermediate Accounting ("The Response").

I spoke with Mr. Reese yesterday and he advised me that the Trustees intended to serve only those beneficiaries who have always been served over the years. I acknowledge that I expanded the service list to include all beneficiaries (including remainder beneficiaries) because I believed, and I still believe, that Mrs. Lear-Baylor's efforts are a benefit to all beneficiaries - remainder beneficiaries included.

An additional enclosure is a 2-page Report to Beneficiaries dated October 29, 2002. Mr. Reese was not aware of this Report and I do not, with any certainty, know who received it, so I am sending it to all beneficiaries. Obviously it is informative, and if one were a cynic, one would think that this Report is a preemptive effort by the Trustees to provide useful information - a thrust of all that Mrs. Lear Baylor has undertaken. The "Financial Report" paragraph is clearly a positive or constructive reaction to Mr. McGhie's work. I am sure all of you would like to know "how the transactions affect each beneficiary category."

Mrs. Lear Baylor (through this office) will file her "Reply" to this "Response" by December 16, 2002. Her "Reply" may be quite succinct since it should address "new" issues raised in the "Response." Then it will be up to Judge Breen at the January 10, 2003 hearing.

Obviously I hope that all of you would be supportive of Mrs. Lear-Baylor's efforts. Theoretically, I would prefer that the Judge not hear from you if you are opposed to her efforts but realistically I think all of us involved would like to have Judge Breen as fully informed as humanly possible. If you are going to file something with the Court, you should think about doing it now and well before January 10, 2003. Provide a copy to Mr. Reese and my office. Ideally you would also send it to all the other beneficiaries. I have enclosed the most recent Lear Family mailing data that we have.

Finally, as previously noted, I make this communication with you as a courtesy and not to provide legal advice. For that you should contact your own lawyer. I represent Mrs. Lear-Baylor only in this matter. Certainly I am positive that both Mr. Reese and myself will be as courteous and responsive to any member of the Lear Family as we can be, but keep in mind the hats we wear.

Very truly yours,

PATRICK JAMES MARTIN
